

VAULIE

Privacy Policy

By using our website, you automatically accept our privacy policy. Vaulie respects the privacy of all users. Personal information which is obtained via our website will be treated as confidential data.

We ask you to provide personal information to be able to make use of our services. This information is used to execute the required service. Data is stored on a privately owned, secured, server. We will not mix the information with other personal data which already has been stored on the server.

It is possible that we store your E-mails or other messages which you have sent to us. Sometimes we ask you for personal information which are relevant for the situation. This makes it possible to provide answers to your questions and execute your requests/orders. This information is also stored on the privately owned, secured, server.

This website uses "cookies" (text files placed on your computer, tablet or smartphone) to help analyse the way the users navigate. Information generated by cookies created by using the website, can be transferred to the secured servers of Vaulie. We use this information to see how the website is used, to create reports about the activity and eventually launch new services with regard to the website activity and internet use.

Vaulie does not collect or use information for other purposes than described in this privacy policy, unless we have obtained your permission in advance. The information provided will not be shared with third parties. The employees of Vaulie are obliged to respect the confidentiality of your personal information.

The Netherlands, 2024